

Wackhath -

Wed. Evening -

My Dear Friends,

I have been disappointed
in my hope of seeing you today - I arrived at the Nat. Gallery at 12.30, & remained there till 2.20, returning again, at 3.30.
I staid for about a quarter of an hour, & then gave you up -

What other chance of meeting you, will your arrangements afford?

I would run down to Kew, for an hour - or Indeavour to meet you somewhere in London,
or at the West End -

I desire to see you both once again - if it may be - My God bless you both -

Yrs. affly
